Maui Band Is Formed

Citizens Readily Subscribe
Necessary Cash.

Some time ago Supervisor Lyons took up the matter of having a band organized in Wailuku which in time will doubtless visit other parts of the island and give concerts for the benefit of the residents of Maui.

The matter was taken up at the last meeting of the board but it was decided that nothing could be done toward appropriating funds for the purpose until a band is organized and in actual existence.

Supervisor W. F. Pogue advanced $100 and sent a check for that amount to Papellmeister Schrader who drew up a subscription list which was circulated among the citizens of Wailuku and Kahului. The necessary funds were quickly raised and the instruments of St. Louis College were bought.

They arrived Saturday and assigned as follows:—Piccolo, John Garcia; Eb Clarinet, Ant. Garcia; Bb Clarinets, T. Rockford, H. English, W. Smith, J. Smith, A. Oliveira; Solo Bb Cornets, G. Weight, J. Garcia; 1st Bb Cornets, J. Welch, J. Hart; 2nd Bb Cornets, E. Punohu, D. K. Pokipala; 3rd Bb Cornet, A. Robinson; Solo Eb Alto, J. Q. Baptiste; 2nd Eb Alto, M. R. Pereira, E. Lyons; 3rd Eb Alto, W. The boys are practicing every night in the Town Hall. The tenants in the vicinity of the hall have not been served with a notice of an advance in their monthly rental in consequence.

Roberts Saves Three Lives

Big Policeman Does Good
Work at Lahaina.

Last Sunday about four o'clock three Japanese capsized their little boat in the channel. Captain Roberts whose manly form often adorns the water front seeing the men struggling to reach their boat at the same time being carried farther away by a strong current, jumped in his canoe which is always ready for saving life, property, and clearing the channel of sharks, etc., and in twenty minutes or so, had the Japanese in his good boat. One of the men was becoming unconscious having too much of the Pacific in his stomach. Captain Roberts poured this water back into the ocean by holding the man up by the heels. Being powerful and an excellent swimmer, the heroic captain has performed many similar deeds during the last few years. Even when a boy he was noted for making big hauls of fish and lassoing sharks. It is said that he can see a school of fish a mile from shore and give the number and name.

Principal MacDonald of the Lahainaluna is enjoying his holidays by putting a large addition to his beautiful cottage. The new part will be furnished for guests and if the good MacDonalds continue their usual hospitality it will be always full.

Mr. Ralston of the wireless station who has not been well for a few months is having a pleasant time with his family at Makawao. Mr. H. Vincent an expert of Hawaii is operating in his absence.

The Rev. Leopold Kroll with his family is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Searl of Honolulu. The little Krolls are having the time of their lives on this big, beautiful ranch and the Searls know how to make their guests happy as their kindness gives them lots of practice.

Monday night and Tuesday were very windy at Lahaina. A great deal of the plantation has been burnt over lately which caused dense clouds of dust and ashes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gannon and son are occupying the Krolls' residence during their absence. This is one of the finest cottages in Lahaina and the location is charming.

The Lahainaluna students will cultivate forty acres of cane next year. The ground is now being prepared. Manager Weinheimer has given employment to thirty seven of the Lahaina school children during the holidays. The children are very much pleased with their work.

The Pioneer mill has closed down with a grinding this year of 27400 tons of sugar.

Judge McKay and Mrs. McKay have been visiting their friends Mr. and Mrs. Waldeyer.

Messrs. Roberts and Wilson of Lahainaluna have visited the Volcano. They enjoyed the visit very much.

Postmaster Waal is having two weeks holidays visiting his daughter and other relatives of Honolulu.

Kekuwa, Manuel Carvalho, Miss Lucy Lani, Edward J. Smythe, Mrs. C. D. Mackenzie, Mrs. Annie L. Haughton, Mary N. Cabrinha, Louisa Hapai, M. C. Baptista, Elizabeth Macy, Lily Ackerman, Mrs. Kawena Kaulii Ellen Copp, Robert Benjamin, Mary K. Gohier, J. W. K. Wright, Constance Aflague, Sam Kabele.

Teachers Are Assigned

Few Changes are Made on Maui.

The Board of Education met some weeks ago and their work has at last been made public.

There were but few changes on Maui Miss A. J. Gault asked for a better position in Honolulu which was granted. She has been the principal of the Punene school for two years and is an able teacher.

Miss Crickard leaves the Wailuku school where she will be missed to accept the principalship of the Punene school.

Miss Hornberger of Amador California was offered the position left vacant by Miss Crickard but she has declined to accept and will return to her home and resume her duties in the Amador school.

Miss Mary Vanderburg of San Jose California will fill the vacancy left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Whitney in the Waihee school.

Robert Benjamin goes back to Nahiku from Kihai to which position he was transferred during the past year.

Maui has a very satisfactory teaching force. The retention of the teachers in their positions will be both satisfactory to the patrons and to the teachers in most cases.

Dist. Court Proceedings

Judge Crockett Dispenses
Justice.

During the absence of W. A. McKay who has been away on a vacation Judge W. F. Crockett has held down the District Court and has dispensed justice with impartiality. Much of the time of the court has been taken up with civil cases and in nearly all them it was a case of H. T. Mills plaintiff.

Mills runs a collection agency in Honolulu and since he was disbarred by the Supreme Court he has managed to carry on the practice of the law in spite of the Court by buying up claims and suing in his own name. The court has not been so lively for many months as since Mills struck the town and the tilts between him and Deputy County Attorney Vincent were frequent and heated.

A charge of assault with a weapon will undoubtedly be preferred against Maeda when Higuchi sufficiently recovers to tell the court how he was stabbed and cut in the thigh and hands by Maeda. The cutting took place at Punene Sunday night and was about a woman.

Judge Crockett sentenced Jesus Ramon to three months imprisonment for assaulting a son of Representative Waiwaiole with a stone.

Ah See Hin was required to pay a fine of fifty dollars for selling opium without the consent of the government.

Five Koreans are in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. They are from Kipahulu.

Kawau was sent down from Uluhalakua to serve out a fine of $30 and costs for assaulting his wife.

Vaudeville Company will Perform in Wailuku.

Tonight and Monday, July 31 and August 2, respectively, the American Vaudeville Co. under the management of H. Dov, will perform in the Iao Stadium building, opposite the First National Bank of Wailuku.

A large stage is being built and accommodations for a large number of people are being made.

The Eldid trio will give bicycle exhibitions, performing some of the most sensational tricks of the age; the Fonseca trio, who have just come from South America, will do an acrobatic and head balancing performance. There are also Fortino Chico, a wire walker and Takekawa, a clever Japanese juggler.

This company has played in Honolulu to crowded houses and in Hilo gave three performances the house being sold out each night before the performance began. From the reports of the newspapers of both cities it is very evident that this company is first-class in every respect. The prices for the performances are very reasonable. Reserved seats can be obtained at the show building at 50 cents, and the price of general admission is 25 cents.

Get your tickets early and avoid the rush. A large crowd is anticipated.
